PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT

Taft Commission Is Preparing A Plan to Accord With New Law.

JUDGE TAFT FOR GOVERNOR

It is Understood That He Will Receive That Appointment---Civil and Military Authorities to Co-operate.

Washington, April 8.—The news from Manila regarding the establishment of civil government is in accord with information already made public here that the new Philippine government will be established about July 1. Immediately upon the passage of the army appropriation bill the entire Spooner amendment was cabled to the Taft commission and the commission was directed to prepare a plan for the government of the islands in accordance with the law. This plan has not yet been completed, but it is expected to be about the time of the return of the commission to Manila and it will be cabled here for approval or amendment. The civil government proposed will not be very elaborate, but sufficient to meet the present requirements.

One of the most interesting features is the question as to who will be in supreme authority under the president. The law says that "all military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the Philippine Islands shall be vested in such person and persons as the president may suggest." The language has been weighed very carefully and the designation "person" followed by "persons" is taken to mean that the president shall name some one to have supreme command under his own direction and that the persons shall be those acting under that command. Judge Taft, it is understood, is to be the governor of the islands but it will be necessary to have some one in Washington to act as medium of communication between the president and governor. There will be a great deal of business with which the president cannot burden himself and some cabinet officer will be selected to have charge of the Philippines as well as other insular affairs.

Authority over the islands probably will be exercised by the president through Secretary Root, as the secretary already is familiar with the governmental machinery of the islands. More than this, the law specifically asserts that military as well as civil and judicial powers shall be exercised in the islands, and it is not believed feasible to divide the responsibility, as for many years to come there must be joint and harmonious action by the civil and military authorities.

There already has grown up in the war department since the Spanish war a division of insular affairs which has had in charge all matters pertaining to the civil operations, not only in the Philippines but in Cuba. At present, Lieut. Colonel Edwards is in charge of this division and his familiarity with conditions in the Philippines, he having spent a great deal of time there, makes him a valuable official. It is probable that if the Philippines be administered through the war department Colonel Edwards will continue in charge of the division.

The fact that the actual control of the Philippines will remain in the war department does not mean that Governor Taft will have his power curtailed. Necessarily the president will remain the court of last resort for everything relating to the islands but the governor and his council will exercise the broadest authority and much that heretofore has been submitted to Washington for determination by the military governor general and the Taft commission is expected to be settled by the governor, council and executive assembly, should one be thought necessary. The belief expressed here is that the governor and council will be about all the government necessary.

COLORADO RATE WAR

Burlington Goes Rock Island One Better.

CHEAP FARES DAILY

One Fare Plus $2 For Round Trip From Middle of June to September ---Rock Island People Say They Will Meet It.

Chicago, April 8. The announcement of the Rock Island company that it will run cheap excursions between Chicago and Colorado points during the summer has stirred up competing lines to the fighting point. Unless a compromise is effected a bitter war on passenger rates in the west may be the result.

The Burlington today announced that it would not only meet the rates announced by the Rock Island but would run the cheap excursions daily instead of once a week as was determined by the Rock Island. The Burlington claims that 90 per cent of the Colorado business last summer was done on the cheap excursion tickets then in effect. This concentrated the traffic on the days on which the low rates were available and comparatively empty trains were run on other days.

For this reason the Burlington has decided to make rates of $25 from Chicago, $21 from St. Louis, and $15 from Missouri river points for the round trip to Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, to be in effect daily from July 1 to July 9 and from September 1 to 10 inclusive, with final return limits of October 31. The round trip to Utah points is to be $10 higher.

In addition it is proposed to make rates of one fare plus $2 to Colorado and Utah points from June 18 to June 30, and from July 1 to August 31, with return limit of 30 days from date of sale, except that tickets sold on homeseekers' excursion dates shall have return limits of October 31.

East bound, the Burlington proposes to make a rate of one fare plus $2 for the round trip from Colorado and Utah points to all points in Western Passenger territory from June 20 to September 21 with return limit of October 31.

The Rock Island people say they will meet whatever rates the Burlington may make.

SENATOR PATTERSON CHARGES CRIMINAL LIBEL

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, April 8.—Senator T.M. Patterson this morning filed with District Attorney Lindsley information for the indictment of Editor Stapleton and Publisher Crawford Hill of the Republican for criminal libel. The information is an editorial which appeared in last Sunday morning's Republican attacking Mr. Patterson, and is as follows:

BOSS PATTERSON—
ALONE RESPONSIBLE.

"Alarmed at the tidal wave of popular indignation that threatens to swamp the newspaper, Senator Patterson, with characteristic cowardice and duplicity, is now endeavoring to shift all blame for the knavery practiced by his personal political machine from his own shoulders to the backs of his lieutenants.

"That little bunco game will not deceive anybody.

"Senator Patterson was the head and front of the entire Democratic campaign which he now professes to deplore and abhor, and there was not a move made or a crime committed in it from first to last for which he personally is not both morally and legally responsible above all other men.

"He was at headquarters from first to last, and no step was taken by any of his lieutenants without direct authorization from him. The appointment of unscrupulous and corrupt election judges and clerks, the herding of repeaters from precinct to precinct, the prostitution of the police force and other public employes of city, county and state to the dirty work of partisan politics, and every other infamy which was committed and which Senator Patterson now pretends to regret all these things were done not only with the knowledge, but by the direct orders of Senator Patterson himself.

"The Maloneys and Speers and Caseys and "Jack" Halls and Kelehrs simply did what Senator Patterson commanded them—to do, and the worst that can be said of the worst of the Democratic workers is that he was partioeps criminis with the wandering refuge from Populism who is now rattling round in the place in the United States senate recently left vacant by the retirement of Senator Wolcott.

"Editor Patterson now makes believe that he thinks the lieutenants of Boss Patterson ought to be prosecuted for election frauds by the district attorney and before a court chosen last November by the same men and methods so overwhelmingly repudiated by the decent people of Denver on Tuesday last, but that is only another of his multifarious false pretenses devised for the purpose of fooling the public.

"Beginning with the big boss himself, there ought to be many prosecutions and many convictions on account of the crimes against the ballot committed by the Democratic machine in the recent election, but as a matter of fact there will not be one.

"The agitation will end as many like it have already ended, in talk, and that is all that will come of it, because a vigorous and determined prosecution of these offenders under existing conditions is out of the question.

"When the good people of this community want to make illegal voting and other election frauds dangerous to the doers they will have to begin at the beginning by electing public servants who will faithfully enforce the criminal code.

"Senator Patterson's lieutenants and their friends are naturally greatly angered now by his cowardly and contemptible repudiation of the dirty work they did under his personal direction, but what else could they expect from him?

"If the knavery had proved successful through apathy on the part of good citizens, Senator Patterson would have assured the public through his personal organ that the election was a model of Democratic purity, and the men now hypocritically commended by him to the tender mercies of a machine-made district attorney would have been lauded to the skies as upright and patriotic citizens.

"Precisely the same men and methods which he now professes to condemn, last fall made it possible for him to get into the senate, and it goes without saying that he will depend upon similar means to accomplish his purposes in future campaigns."

District Attorney Lindsley spent the balance of the day considering the information. It is not the intention to arrest the two gentlemen, but simply to notify them to appear and prove the charges they have made.

The affair has caused a sensation in the political affairs of Denver. It all grew out of last Tuesday's election. Since the election Mr. Patterson has printed a number of statements giving his reasons why Denver went Republican. The statements placed the blame largely upon the managers of the Democratic city campaign, and upon the questionable means employed to control the primaries and later the election. It was in reply to one of these statements that the Republican printed the editorial, which was the cause of the suit.

In speaking of the matter Mr. Patterson is quoted as saying:

"No person connected with the press or in public life in Colorado has been compelled to ignore more unwarranted newspaper attacks than myself. I have always treated my colleagues of the press with courteous consideration. Indeed, their names have been rarely mentioned in the News except in connection with current news topics, or to defend them when unjustly assailed. I have become almost stoic so far as newspaper criticism is concerned, but the Republican editorial of Saturday was so outrageous in its license, so monstrously untrue in all of its details, that I could not overlook it. I know of but one recourse in such a case—that is the tribunals of the country. I consider it due to my good name and to the people of the state whose servant I now am, that the owner and editor of the Republican should be forced into a position where they would be compelled to either make good their charges or be branded as all such people should, as common liars.

"I have no desire to put any indignity upon either of the persons to be prosecuted. When the information is ready and warrants issued my wish is that they simply be notified and appear before the bar of the court. Then the rest lies with the court. I will urge the district attorney to press the case to an immediate hearing. It should be ready for trial within a week."

When the case is called for trial an attempt will probably be made to introduce all the evidence that is now being gathered against illegal voting on election day. The Democrats have appointed the following committee to assist in presenting the alleged election day frauds: T. J. O'Donnell, Ralph Talbot, W. H. Bryant, Cass E. Herrington and George F. Dunkiee. James E. Allen, the Democratic election judge in the 20th precinct of the 9th ward, has not yet been arrested. The last seen of him was at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when he boarded a D. and R. G. train ostensibly for Colorado Springs.

District Attorney Lindsley this afternoon issued warrants for the arrest of four more election offenders. They are all Republicans and are as follows: Robert T. Meyers, ex-justice of the peace, ex-collector of internal revenue and Republican committeeman, charged with buying votes. Fred Tegler, Charles Weiss and John T. Bryan, the last three being judges of election in precinct 5, ward 16, accused of knowingly receiving fraudulent votes.

AMERICAN FINESSE

Vienna, April 9. The French Economist, Paul Leroy Beaulieu, in an article in the Neue Weiner Tagsblatt, discussing which civilized nation is likely to exploit China, says:

"It is probable that the chief role will fall to the United States especially when the Nicaragua canal has been cut. China will then, for economic purposes, become an American colony. The Americans know this and their whole attitude during recent events has been marked by finesse and foresight."

NORTH AFRICA ENTENTE

London, April 8.—The Daily Chronicle publishes a dispatch from Tangier regarding a new Franco-Italian entente in north Africa.

"This is likely to have great consequences," says the correspondent, "Italy ceasing her opposition to French designs in Morocco in return for permission to occup Tripoli. It is suggested that Great Britain would welcome the creation of a friendly state between Tunis and Egypt. A big move is expected after M. Delcasse's interview with Count Lamsdorf in St. Petersburg."

BOUTELLE'S SUCCESSOR

Bangor, Me., April 8. The special election in the fourth Maine congressional district today to choose a successor to Charles A. Boutelle, resigned, resulted in a victory for ex-Governor Llewellyn Powers of Houlton, the Republican candidate, by a majority estimated at slightly more than 2,000 over Thomas White, Dem. In September Mr. Boutelle's majority in the district was more than 10,000. The weather was bad.

FIRE IN OTTAWA

Ottawa, Ont., April 9.—A serious fire started in the Russell House block at 1 a. m. It is believed that all the guests succeeded in getting out of the hotel. The flames are making rapid headway and it now looks as if the whole square, which includes besides the hotel, the Russell House theater and several stores, would be destroyed.

The Russell house is one of the principal hotels in this city and there were about 200 guests in the building when the fire broke out. Many of them were forced to leave all their belonging behind them and escape in their night clothes.

The Russell theater is one of the finest play houses in Canada, and is a total loss. The "Belle of New York" opera company played in the theater last night and lost everything in the way of scenery and costumes that had been left in the building.

RENEWED RUMORS ABOUT PUEBLO STEEL PLANT

Denver, April 8. An announcement made in Denver today explains the recent remarkable advance in the price of Colorado Fuel and Iron company's stock. The story is to the effect that John W. Gates, chairman of the American Steel and Wire company, John Lambert, former president of the company and I. L. Elwood, a former second vice president, have secured control of the stock of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and will at once increase the capacity of the Pueblo plant.

According to the story twenty tin plate mills, two additional blast furnaces and a wire mill will be added to the present plant of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at Pueblo.

A conference, it is said, will be held tomorrow in Chicago between the gentlemen named and William Garret, of Cleveland, O., in reference to the construction of the new mills.

Henry R. Wolcott, vice president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company tonight declined to confirm or deny the story. He said, however, that he had no knowledge of the fact that a control of the company's stock had changed hands, and was inclined to believe that it was impossible for such a deal to be consummated.

PROMOTION FOR MUDGE.

Topeka, Kan., April 8.—It is generally understood among railroad officials here that H. U. Mudge, general manager of the Santa Fe, will succeed to the position of third vice president of the road in place of J. G. Barr. Mr. Mudge is popular among railroad people and his selection as third vice president would cause general satisfaction. Mr. Mudge would not discuss the matter of his appointment tonight.

TOPEKA CONTEST FOR MAYOR.

Topeka, Kan., April 8.—Albert Parker commenced an action in the district court today by mandamus to compel Col. J. W. F. Hughes to turn the office of mayor over to Parker on the ground that he was legally elected mayor. On the face of the return Col. Hughes, the Law and Order candidate, received a majority of 7. Mr. Parker's name appeared on two tickets, the Democratic and Citizens.

THE SMELTER COMBINATION

Purchase of Guggenheim Interests Said to Have Been Completed.

OPPOSITION WAS WITHDRAWN

Certificate Increasing Capital Stock of American Smelting Company to $100,000,000 Filed.

New York, April 8.—Aattorney Samuel Untermeyer tonight gave out a statement, in which he says a protracted meeting was held today at his office and continued tonight at Delmonico's which had reference to the litigation between the American Smelting company and the Standard Oil interests represented by H. H. Rogers and Leonard Lewisohn over the merging of the M. Guggenheim's Sons plant.

Mr. Untermeyer's statement goes on to say:

"The differences were finally settled and the interests of the Standard Oil company are now closely allied with those of the American Smelting company, while the United Metal Smelting company becomes the selling agent of the Consolidated company.

"The certificate increasing the capital stock of the company to $100,000,000 was filed with the secretary of state at Trenton tonight.

"In order to avoid any further complications the new stock was immediately issued and delivered to the Guggenheims and they have conveyed their property to the company, so that the amalgamation is now complete. There was $22,000 in revenue stamps required for the stock certificates, and almost half that amount to stamp the deeds."

The World tomorrow will say:

Differences between the majority and minority stockholders of the American Smelting and Refining company have been adjusted and the suit restraining the corporaton from increasing its capital stock to $100,000,000 for the purpose of purchasing the properties of M. Guggenheim's Sons has been withdrawn. This announcement came yesterday just prior to the handing down of a decision by Justice Dixon in Trenton, ordering that the stay enjoining the purchase of the property be continued and that the proceedings to increase the stock remain in statu quo pending final argument and decision by the court of chancery as to the real value of the Guggenheim property.

H. H. Rogers and Leonard Lewisohn, of the United Metal Selling company opposed the consolidation because the smelting company wanted to act as its own agent after consolidation whereas the selling company had handled the smelting company's business for years. Messrs. Rogers and Lewisohn withdrew from the directory of the smelting company. Negotiations looking toward a peaceful settlement have been in progress for the past two months and culminated last night at a meeting held at Delmonico's. By the terms accepted the Selling company will again act as selling agents for the American Smelting and Refining company. The plans are also to re-elect Messrs. Lewisohn and Rogers to the directory of the consolidated company.

The Metal Selling company exports about 55,000,000 ounces of silver yearly, nearly all of which it handles in its capacity as agent of the American Smelting and Refining company.

The Guggenheim company's yearly export is about 25,000,000 ounces. The consolidated company will control about 90 per cent of the business. The settlement of the difficulties means that the silver and copper productions of the United States will be controlled by one company. The Metal Selling company, which is recognized as a Rockefeller concern, now controls the copper trade, its yearly shipments amounting to 80 per cent of the entire output of this country. It is interested also in large foreign copper properties. The annual business of the American Smelting and Refining company is about $75,000,000.

IMPORTANT RULING ON SMELTER COMBINATION

New York, April 8. Justice Dixon at Trenton, N. J., today filed an opinion of the court of errors and appeals in the case brought by minority stockholders of the American Smelting & Refining company to enjoin the purchase of the property of M. Guggenheim & Sons. This opinion has been awaited with great interest by corporation lawyers, as it is considered most important as affecting corporations in New Jersey. The importance of the opinion lies in the construction placed by the court on the forty-eighth and forty-ninth sections of the general corporation act. Vice Chancellor Stevens held the court could not go beyond the decision of the board of directors as to the value of property to be purchased by the issuing of stock. The court of errors, on the contrary, holds that it must be clearly shown that the value of such property is at least reasonably near the price to be paid and that the action of the directors is subject to review at the instance of any stockholder who considers himself aggrieved. The syllabus of Justice Dixon follows:

"Under section 40 of our corporation act, when an original issue of corporate stock for property to be purchased is contemplated, it is the duty of the directors to see that the real value of the property is at least equal to the face value of the stock.

"Before an original issue of corporate stock for property to be purchased takes place the bona fide judgment of the directors as to the value of the property, while it is entitled to considerable weight, is not conclusive, but may be reviewed at the instance of existing stockholders, and if on such review by a court of equity the value of the property appears to be less than the face value of the stock, the issue should be restrained.

"After stock has been issued as fully paid stock for property purchased the judgment of the directors as to the value of the property becomes conclusive in the absence of actual fraud in the transaction and such stock is not liable to any further call.

"An increase of corporate stock, voted for by the board of directors and by the requisite majority of stockholders, in order to issue such stock for property worth less than the face value of the stock should be restrained at the instance of dissenting stockholders."

The court finds that the mere fact that two-thirds of the directors and stockholders voted for the purchase cannot prevent its review, pointing out that this would not justify an issue of stock for an illegitimate enterprise.

"In accordance with these views the court orders that the stay be continued enjoining the purchase and that proceedings to increase the stock should likewise remain in statu quo pending further argument and a decision by the court of chancery as to the real value of the Guggenheim property.

DENVER GAS COMPANY IN PROPOSED CONSOLIDATION

New York, April 8.—Emerson McMillin, who was one of the prominent stockholders of the East River Gas company, which is now a part of the Consolidated Gas company, said today that he is making arrangements to consolidate a number of gas light, traction and water power companies throughout the United States. The companies already under consideration include the Consolidated Gas company, the Binghampton gas works, the Columbus (Ohio) Edison company, the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Gas company, the Jackson (Mich.) Gas company, the Laclede Gas company of St. Louis, the Consolidated Gas company of Long Branch, N. J., the Madison (Wis.) Gas and Electric company, the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gas company, the St. Paul (Minn.) Gas Light company, the Western Milwaukee Gas company, the Denver Gas & Electric Light company, the Southern Light & Traction company of San Antonio, Tex., the Montgomery (Ala.) Light and Power company, and the Winnebago Traction company of Oshkosh. The combined capital of these corporations is said to be about $35,000,000.

FILIPINOS IN MANILA DISTRUST AGUINALDO

Manila, April 8.—General MacArthur says it is impossible to make a statement concerning Aguinaldo now.

It is possible that Aguinaldo will soon be removed from the Malacanang palace to a large house with pleasant grounds, No. 56 General Solano street, a fashionable quarter of the city, between the Pasig river, which is being dredged and prepared for occupancy. Aguinaldo is purchasing diamonds and other jewelry. He continues to receive certain visitors but newspaper correspondents are excluded.

It is said that the manifesto which Aguinaldo has been preparing has not yet been signed and it is added that Aguinaldo is reluctant to comply with the conditions.

It appears that the majority of the Filipinos in Manila distrust Aguinaldo and dislike to see him accorded special favors. They say he ought to be severely punished.

PRESIDENT LOUBET'S VISIT TO THE RIVIERA

Nice, April 8. President Loubet's visit to the Mediterranean coast opened under excellent auspices. The weather during the past few days has been unusually chilly, but brightened today and sunshine welcomed the president's arrival in the morning.

President Loubet has chosen the most charming season for a tour of the Riviera. The whole countryside is a mass of bloom of varied hues and Nice and the presidential train steamed into it in splendid floral decorations everywhere. The windows and balconies were profusely adorned with garlands of flowers, carnations, wall flowers and roses, with which flower also hung from the arches suspended from the Venetian masts and triumphal arches over the streets.

The president was accompanied by his wife, the minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse and the minister of war, M. Andre.

The only stoppages made on the route here were at Cannes and Antibes, where there were brief receptions on the part of the local authorities. But all the stations were decorated with flags.

There has been a great influx of visitors here. Numbers of Italians who, with the regiments of infantry and members of the gymnastic services, in uniform, enhanced the color and animation of the street scenes.

Throughout the route from the station to the prefecture, where the president will stay while in Nice, a vast crowd gathered early in the morning to await President Loubet's arrival. They welcomed by the military and civil authorities at the station, where the "Marseillaise" was played by the municipal band. Proceeding to the prefecture, where the Alpine troops were drawn up, the president distributed a number of decorations to the officers.

He then entered a gala landau, which was driven slowly to the prefecture amid a fanfare of bugles and drums.

The president's reception by the people was most warm. The cheering and cheering for the president and the republic. The usual receptions were held at the prefecture, where the military, municipal and religious bodies, through their representatives delivered short addresses, which the president replied to. The utterances on both sides were without special significance.

Replying to an address from a delegation of the clergy, President Loubet pointed out that he had always favored tolerance toward the episcopate, as he believed they ought to be a staunch auxiliary of the government in effecting the union of all French and for the welfare of the country.

To an address delivered by Gen. Mazinger on behalf of the garrison, President Loubet assured the delegation that the government was proud of the army and knew the giant efforts it had made to be ready for eventualities. The fifteenth army corps were especially worthy of the confidence shown in them in charging them with the safety of the post of honor a few steps from the frontier.

After receiving the foreign consuls President Loubet was entertained by the various officials at luncheon. The president's visit to Nice is merely a prelude to the more important fetes at Toulon, where President Loubet will arrive Wednesday afternoon on board a warship, being escorted from Villefranche by the French squadron. His time here will be taken up with banquets, visits to gymnastic competitions and flower shows and other such functions. Ten such functions were gone through today, concluding with a fireworks display and a gala performance at the opera.

CHINESE REBELS

General Fu Sian With 11,500 Regular Troops Threatens to Overthrow Dynasty.

Peking, April 8.—The rumors, which have been current during the past few days, of the outbreak of a rebellion, headed by General Tung Fu Sian, the former commander of the northern army, in the province of Mongolia and Shen-si, have been absolutely authenticated.

Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have received information on the subject, which, though indefinite, still proves that the court is seriously alarmed.

General Fu Sian was, according to last accounts, about 150 miles from the court with about 11,500 regular troops who are believed to be devoted to himself. The court has about the same number at Sian-fu but it is probable that the troops of Tung Fu Sian are better drilled and better armed.

It is believed that the Mongolian rebellion was brought about through agents of Prince Tuan and General Tung Fu Sian. Li Hung Chang thinks there are about 5,000 regular troops in Mongolia and inclines to the belief that they have not joined in the rebellion. He does not think the court is in any danger and thinks the object of Prince Tuan (who was last reported at Ninghsu with 10,000 men prepared to resist arrest) and General Tung Fu Sian is to create a diversion of interest in order to force unconditional protection of themselves.

Unofficial Chinamen of intelligence, regard the rising as most unfortunate, at the present time, to the interests of China, and as possibly meaning the use of foreign troops to protect even the court itself.

The ministers of the powers do not think that, provided foreign interests do not suffer, any present interference is likely. If the dynasty should be overthrown it would, to a certain extent, delay the peace negotiations, but they consider that a regime not bound by traditions like those of the present court probably would be much easier to deal with eventually, as the ceremonial could be much curtailed.

Prince Ching, who, as a relative, may be considered to take the court view of the situation, thinks the rebellion is a storm in a tea cup. He says the present court is loved and esteemed by nine-tenths of the population of China and that the same proportion of able bodied men in China would rise to protect the existing dynasty. The empress dowager, as the adviser of the emperor, holds a place in the affections of the people not dreamed of and not understood by foreigners. Her slightest wish is the emperor's law, though he is by no means the figurehead the foreign powers frequently suppose. The emperor recognizes her ability, invaluable aid and advice.

A SEVERE BLOW TO RUSSIA

London, April 9. In a dispatch to the Times from Peking, dated Sunday, Dr. Morrison comments upon the blow to Russian prestige in China resulting from the check to Russia's ambitions regarding Manchuria.

"This blow is all the more severe," he says, "because Japan, whom the Russians have affected to treat with the utmost contempt, has had the largest share in dealing it.

"There is little doubt that Russia will renew the struggle in some shape. It is a remarkable outburst of popular feeling which has thus enabled China to withstand Russia. All the appeals against the convention concerning Manchuria were addressed to the emperor. It is therefore difficult to believe that the empress dowager has not been affected by the defeat of the policy of which her henchman, Li Hung Chang, is the sturdiest exponent.

Burns for Cripple Creek's permanent auditorium, to be erected at First street and Masonic avenue. The design shows a handsome two-story structure capable of seating 3,000 people. The building will cost $12,000. The main entrance to the structure will be from Masonic avenue. The executive committee met in the headquarters in the Mining Exchange building for the first time. THE DEATH OF W. E. JOHNSON

Promoter of Florence and Cripple Road Died at St. Paul.

HIS SERVICES TO THE STATE

Came to Colorado From Iowa in 1878 Incorporator of Florence Oil and Refining Company.

St. Paul, Minn., April 8.—W. E. Johnson, a millionaire miner of Florence, Colo., died suddenly at St. Joseph's hospital last midnight. Mr. Johnson was interested in three smelters in operation in the vicinity of Denver and was an influential citizen in his state.

About two weeks ago he came to St. Paul and while a guest at the home of Dr. R. Schiffmann became sick.

Mrs. Johnson and a brother of the deceased came here from Colorado and were at the bedside of the dying man yesterday. Wednesday the patient became suddenly worse and he was removed to St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. Johnson was 40 years old. His sister is Mrs. L. C. Wood of Florence, Colo. The body will be sent home for burial.

W. E. Johnson was one of the most successful promoters of important industrial enterprises in the state, and from the time that he arrived in this state, a youth not yet 21 years of age, was intimately associated with large investment projects.

His early life was that of the ordinary American boy of good parentage. He was born in Hopkinton, Mass., October 26, 1857, and when 6 months old his father removed to Iowa Falls, Iowa, where the family remained until 1863, when they moved to Fostoria, Ohio. Three years later they returned to Iowa Falls, where Mr. Johnson remained until he came to Colorado. He was educated in the Iowa State university, and on May 6, 1878, with some of his associates, started with a team for Colorado, arriving here on July 4. He went directly to Alamosa, and soon afterward took a position as a surveyor on a railroad line which was then contemplated from Alamosa to Pagosa Springs. In the fall of the same year he went to Canon City and went into business as an engineer, continuing there until 1886, and in the meantime incorporated the Canon City Water company and built the works. In 1886 he accepted a position with the Colorado Coal and Iron company, the predecessor of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, and had charge of their business in Pitkin and Garfield counties.

In 1885 he founded and incorporated the Florence Oil and Refining company, the first institution to furnish commercial oil to the people of the state from the local output of oil.

In 1892, when Cripple Creek began to attract attention, he promoted the Florence and Cripple Creek railroad, one of the most successful railroad enterprises ever started in the state, and was the leading spirit in its construction.

His latest enterprise was the Rocky Mountain smelter at Florence, which, like all the other enterprises with which he was connected, has proved a brilliant success.

SIGN OF THE MILLIONAIRE

U. S.

It's the sign of the Millionaire.

The town is getting full of them.

Four more arrived in the city yesterday and Manager Hulen had them out at Washburn field for practice morning and afternoon. He announced several days ago that the Millionaires would train every day morning and afternoon, rain or shine, and yesterday afternoon he had a chance to make good on his proposition. It rained hard and cold for a long time but the Millionaires were out and they practiced.

Cy Swaim was one of the arrivals yesterday. He isn't a thing of beauty in the clothes that he wore yesterday but he will look better when he gets a new suit and if he is as good at twirling the leather as he is said to be he will certainly be a joy forever. He's one of the men whom Hulen has signed from Fort Wayne, Ind. Bollingsworth, Hemphill and Arthurs also landed yesterday.

The sign of the Millionaire is the dollar sign.

Nothing could be more appropriate, and if a suggestion that has been quite well received by the management is carried out the name will appear in symbolic form upon the uniforms of the men who are to have the distinction of playing in the name of the city of millionaires.

The feeling is growing constantly that Hulen has a pennant-winning aggregation of ball-tossers. He had a pennant-winning crowd last year—the big Sioux team being manifestly superior to anything else in the league until the town went back on the team, when the players became disheartened and allowed the latter part of the season to go almost by default. Man for man, Hulen has a stronger aggregation than he had a year ago and that by a large majority. Persons familiar with the different leagues and the different players the country over are remarking to each other that no Western league team has a crowd that is anywhere near as promising as the Millionaires unless it is St. Paul.

Colorado Springs people will await the first league game with eagerness and undoubtedly will give the team the oldest support.

A practice game between the Millionaires and the college team is scheduled for Thursday afternoon.

AMATEUR BASEBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

Five teams of local boy ball players are organized into the Amateur Baseball league of Colorado Springs yesterday.

The new league is composed of the following teams: South End, West Side Juniors, Manitou Juniors, North End and High school. It is expected that a team from Colorado City will also join the league.

Players in the boys' league are limited to the age of 18 years. Games will be played every Saturday during the season on a schedule, to be arranged at a meeting Wednesday. The teams will be uniformed, and it is expected that great rivalry will exist among the players.

The officers, chosen at the first meeting of the organization, are: George [illegible], president, and Arthur Mitchell, secretary.

[illegible] and H. Strang have offered a cup to the team winning the championship.

ROYAL VICTOR WON TENNESSEE DERBY

Memphis, Tenn., April 8.—Before 10,000 persons T. P. Hayes' brown colt, Royal Victor, won the Tennessee derby at Montgomery Park from John F. Schorr's bay filly Lady Schorr, with George Long's bay colt Gatheris third. The time was 1:57, a very creditable performance.

The Schorr stable had named three starters, but Alard Scheck and Joe Frey were scratched, and Farmer Bennett was added to keep Lady Schorr company. Siddons, The Commander and Dick Burgess were also scratched, leaving only six contestants. The Schorr pair were held at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 3, while 8 to 1 was chalked against Royal Victor. After two false breaks the field was sent away to an excellent start, with Royal Victor a head in front of Farmer Bennett and the others close up. Farmer Bennett and Lady Schorr raced to the front, and with Royal Victor a length away, made the running to the stretch. At this point Winkfield sent the Hayes' colt up to the leader and in the run home he challenged Lady Schorr. J. Woods, on the latter, went to the whip, but his efforts were of no avail, Royal Victor, well-ridden by Winkfield, winning handily by three parts of a length. Gatheris made up a lot of ground in the stretch and finished third.

TRAVELED FAR TO WED SECRETLY

William S. Heath, a young business man of Lafayette, Ind., traveled all the way to Colorado to be married secretly to the woman of his choice, Mrs. Mary S. Spence, a society leader of his town. The two were wedded in Colorado Springs yesterday and will leave in a day or two for Lafayette, to reveal their romance to their friends.

Mrs. Spence has been spending the winter with her brother, Mr. Hugh Swearingen, in Denver. His fiance came to Denver to see her, and as their engagement had been kept secret they decided to avoid publicity in their marriage. They came to this city yesterday, hurried from the train to the office of the county clerk, where they secured the necessary license, and within an hour after they arrived here were quietly married.

After the wedding the couple went to the Alta Vista. They will probably leave today for Lafayettte, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Heath is an attractive woman, 30 years old, and her husband is four years her junior.

LOS ANGELES PEOPLE COMING—The members of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, who propose soon to take an excursion through the middle west and east, have been invited to visit Colorado Springs. The officers of the local chamber of commerce have asked the Californians to stop here on their way through, but no definite arrangements for the visit have yet been made.

The diseases most feared are those which are inherited—handed down from generation to generation, and family to family. By far the most destructive of these is Cancer, which finds the greatest number of its victims among the children and grand-children of those whose blood was tainted with this dreadful malady. You may carry this poison in the blood for years, but as the vital powers begin to wane a slight bruise or cut, wart or mole, sore or pimple may develop into Cancer. From middle life to old age is the time when the slumbering poison is most apt to break out, a sore or ulcer often degenerating into Cancer, and Tumors become more progressive and ulcerate through the skin, with sharp, shooting pains causing the most intense suffering.

The Cancer patient naturally grows despondent as one after another the usual remedies fail, and the sore shows no sign of healing. The impurities that have been accumulating in the system, perhaps for generations, cannot be eliminated nor the poisoned blood made pure by salves, washes and plasters. The proper treatment is to purify and build up the blood, remove the cause, when the sore or ulcer heals.

Mr. J. B. Arnold, of Greenwood, S. C., writes: "A wart came, just under the left eye. It began spreading, and grew worse rapidly, destroying the flesh as it went. As Cancer is hereditary in my family I became thoroughly alarmed, consulting the best physicians and taking many blood medicines, none of which did me any good, when one of our leading druggists advised me to try S. S. S., and by the time I had taken the second bottle the Cancer began to show signs of healing, the discharge grew gradually less and finally ceased altogether, the sore dried up and nothing remains but a slight scar. I feel that I owe my life to S. S. S."

S. S. S. goes directly into the blood, destroys the virus, stops the formation of Cancerous cells and cleanses the system of impurities. What we say of S. S. S. as a cure for Cancer is supported by the testimony of those who have tested it and been restored to health.

Begin in time, don't wait until the blood is so polluted and the system so thoroughly saturated with the poison that no medicine, however efficacious, can check the progress of the disease. If there is a taint in your blood get it out at once, don't wait for some external evidence of it, the appearance of a tumor or ucer. We have prepared a special book on Cancer which we will mail free. Our physicians are ready to help you by their advice and such direction as your case requities. Write us fully and freely—no charge for medical advice. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA GA.

Amusements

NATHAN HALE.

Clyde Fitch's powerful play of "Nathan Hale" will be the attraction at the opera house next Monday evening.

It has been repeatedly said of the remarkable play that no more brilliant example of a truly representative American work exists in the literature of the American stage. The production will be made with all the splendor of accoutrements that characterized its successful career during its long run at the Knickerbocker theater, New York. Mr. Clyde Fitch, the author, is enthusiastic over the superb cast that will set forth the merits of his play. The title role of the spy hero, who sacrificed his life at the age of 21 for his country, and whose famous dying words, "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country," have gone down in history as a noteworthy utterance of a sublime hero, will be in the hands of an eminent young American actor, Howard Kyle. This actor has acquired, through the force of his fervor and intelligence, an enviable reputation as one of our prominent leading men. He is well known through his long association with Shakespearian and other legitimate drama.

OTIS SKINNER IN PRINCE OTTO.

One of the dramatic events of the season is the coming production of "Prince Otto," at the opera house on Tuesday, with Mr. Otis Skinner in the title role. This play is Mr. Skinner's own adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's romantic story of the same name, and the play is even more delightful than the novel, and though many of the characters have different names, those who have read the novel will easily recognize them. In making the adaptation, the novel has been followed as closely as was possible. Mr. Skinner has made Prince Otto—a true prince of romance—manly, dashing, brave and clever; while Stevenson's Prince Otto was a feather-brained hero without any care beyond his love of sports. The role of the prince is one which is admirably suited to Mr. Skinner, and there are few if any actors on the stage at the present time who are better fitted for the delineation of romance than he is. His personality is a very pleasing one; he is magnetic to a degree, and his knowledge of the technique and the workings of the stage is most extensive. Mr. Skinner is one of the most careful producers upon the stage at the present time, and in all of his productions anachronisms have been noticeably absent. The same clever company as interpreted the play during its New York engagement will also be seen here.

A score of tourists homeward bound to the east arrived in Colorado Springs last night. The following party of eight, traveling together, registered at the Alamo: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Donaldson, of Ballston, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Spitzer, of Toledo, O.; Mr. W. H. Ford of Chicago and Mrs. Edward Gibb, Miss Gibb and Miss K. R. Bowers of Brooklyn.

Among the tourists who stopped at the Alta Vista were Dr. D. T. Brigham and Mrs. Brigham, and Mr. A. C. Brigham and wife, of Boston; Mr. A. M. McFarland, Mrs. McFarland and Helen McFarland, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, of Hartford, Conn.

DISAPPEARED—The police have been notified of the disappearance of C. H. Andrews who has worked for the street department for some time past. His family were very much worried over the matter and are doing everything in their power to locate the man.

THE NEWS OF COLORADO CITY

:: GAZETTE'S BRANCH OFFICE ::

M. K. RANKIN'S COAL OFFICE :: 513 COLORADO AVENUE

Waycott Will Build on Colorado Avenue

Building in Colorado City is on the boom at present and at the present rate it will not be long before Colorado avenue will assume a very metropolitan aspect. The confidence which a number of the leading promoters of this city and Colorado Springs have in the future of Colorado City has led them to place a good deal of capital into real estate and the result is that Colorado City is rapidly being built up in all parts. The Reed Investment company is building two handsome business blocks in the central part of the city and another one will be begun as soon as the site can be cleared of its present buildings and their occupants.

The latest addition to the new business blocks in the city will be an elegant modern structure which will be erected on the northeast corner of Fifth street and Colorado avenue by Mr. Ernest Waycott. Mr. Waycott owns a block of very desirable property fronting on Sixth street and Colorado avenue and he intends to build on it in the near future. He is greatly interested in the welfare of Colorado City, and is a member of the present city council.

The building will be a three-story brick, with a frontage of 50 feet on Colorado avenue and a depth of 120 feet extending along Fifth street. It will be built of red pressed brick and will be modern in every particular. The first story will be occupied by the new bank, announcement of which was made in these columns a few days ago, and by three other stores. The room which will be especially built to meet the requirements of the bank, will have a corner entrance, which will be very handsome. The second story will contain a small lodge hall and some offices and the third story will be taken up by a large hall for lodge entertainments and a banquet room. An anteroom will separate the banquet hall from the entertainment hall. There are about 32 lodges in Colorado City, and at present there is not a hall in the city which is suited for lodge meetings and entertainments.

Mr. Waycott, who is a contractor and architect, will draw the plans for the building. Every room has been contracted for and the bank has taken a five-year lease on the room which it will occupy. Mr. Waycott's home, which now stands back from the street on this property, will be moved to the corner of Fifth and Lincoln avenue, where a lot has been reserved for it. Mr. Waycott said yesterday that he was going to build on all of his property and that he expected to experience no difficulty in finding tenants for all of the buildings.

Resurrection Was the Theme

The Easter services at the Colorado city churches were very appropriate and beautiful. All of the churches were decorated with lilies and roses and the special music which was prepared for Easter in the different churches was excellent and greatly appreciated.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd Rev. J. E. Carpenter, the rector, preached in the morning on "The Resurrection." The choir wore vestments for the first time in the history of the local church. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and other flowers of various kinds which filled the building with a delightful fragrance.

The Baptist church also was adorned with many Easter blossoms. The organ and windows were banked with palms and flowers and the pulpit was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Powell, preached in the morning on "The Resurrection of Christ." Special music was given at both morning and evening services. At the latter service Rev. C. E. Walker preached on "Co-operation With Divine Discourse," a very eloquent sermon.

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. Flournoy Payne preached on the following theme: "Christ's Resurrection and Its Bearing on Our Lives Today." Miss Shields and Mrs. Longfellow rendered some very pleasing vocal solos, and the special organ music was excellent.

All of the services at St. Mary's Catholic church were well attended. Rev. Father Howlett preached the Easter sermon both morning and evening.

A large and stylish congregation attended the services at the First Methodist church both Easter morning and afternoon. Dr. Hazlett preached in the morning and a programme of special music, as announced in the Gazette Tuesday, was rendered.

STILL ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS STRUCTURE

Mr. W. D. Ascough has closed a deal whereby John Neiswinter comes into possession of lot 8 of block 185 on Colorado avenue for a consideration of $670.

This lot is situated near the corner of Sixth street, on the south side of the street, and is a desirable location for the new business block which Mr. Neiswinter will erect on it in the near future at a cost of about $5,000. Plans for the building have not been drawn as yet, but it will be modern and adapted to business offices and stores. It will be built of brick and will be a great addition to the business section of the city.

REAL ESTATE SALES IN COLORADO CITY

The following sales are reported by Mr. Ascough, in addition to the one above:

Lot 5, block 185, from Anna I. Steves to W. S. Correll, consideration $600.

Lots 26 and 23 of blocks 84 and 29 from H. A. Mullin to James McIntire, for a consideration of $1,050. The above lots are adjoining, but a break in the line of survey caused the unusual numbering.

Lots [illegible] and 26 of block 101 from A. E. Evans to J. W. Crumm; consideration $1,400.

Lot 12 of block 179, from W. D. Ascough to J. D. Dunbar; consideration not named.

Lot 20, block 118, O. L. & Q addition, from W. H. Schwartz to W. S. Correll; consideration $300.

CITY BRIEFS.

BRAIN FEVER—Mr. H. S. Van Cleave is very ill at his home on the south side with brain fever.

BANQUET—The Citizens party will celebrate the recent victory at the polls by a banquet which will be given in the city hall tonight. Fifty invitations have been issued and the price of the tickets has been placed at $5 each. A number of toasts and speeches will be made by the successful candidates and prominent members of the party.

MOVED TO GOLDFIELD—George Shields, who is well-known in this city, has moved to Goldfield, Colo., where he has accepted a position.

LEFT THE CITY—Mr. Frank McGinty, who recently sold his saloon business in this city, has gone to Milan, Mo., where he will engage in business.

NEW RESTAURANT—Mr. A. A. Stokes opened a new restaurant in this city last Sunday at noon. The restaurant has been named "The Columbine" and is neat and clean in every particular.

RETURNED FROM THE SOUTH—Howard Sherman, who has been traveling through Texas and other southern states for the past three months, has returned to this city. His father, C. M. Sherman, is the proprietor of the Postoffice Book store.

POLICE COURT—There was one case in police court yesterday morning. Judge Cunningham fined W. P. Wilson $10 and costs for disturbing the peace by fighting on the streets.

BAD RUNAWAY—A serious runaway occurred on Fifth street yesterday morning by which two vehicles were badly damaged and a good deal of excitement was caused. A team hitched to a delivery wagon belonging to the Lily-White market became frightened in front of Henry Templeton's residence on North Fifth street and ran south on that street. Just south of Colorado avenue the team ran into a lumber wagon causing the team which was hitched to this wagon to run away. No one was hurt and with the exception of some broken harness and broken wagons no damage was done.

NEW LODGE—The latest secret society to make its appearance in Colorado City is the Eagles. This order was organized locally Sunday afternoon by State Organizer Chas. M. Graff and already consists of sixty members. The Eagles are similar to the Elks, being a social and benevolent order.

Council Created A New City Office

The city council met in adjourned session last night for the purpose of considering and taking action upon the ordinance creating city offices and providing salaries and compensation for them. The ordinance passed unanimously, after having been considered in sections. An office of water commissioner was created.

All aldermen were present, with the exception of Messrs. Watson and Summers. A number of petitions and communications were read. Gilbert M. Edmundson, representing the United States Surety company, wants to furnish the bonds for the different city officials, on the understanding that the city pay the interest on the bonds. The communication was referred to the finance committee. A petition was read from a number of the residents of Colorado City, asking that the council place a four-inch water main through a portion of that city which is not reached by water at present. The petition was referred to the water committee.

W. H. West, in a letter addressed to City Treasurer Hale, which was read before the council last night, asks that the city grant him a lease on a portion of the lot on the northwest corner of Huerfano street and Cascade avenue. He further stated that he wanted to erect a temporary structure, about fifteen feet square, in which he would open up a cigar, fruit, candy and news store. He also asked that the city name him the lowest possible figure for a six months' lease and that no lease be granted to any other party for a similar store near that corner. This communication caused a good deal of merriment among the aldermen, owing to the fact that the city does not own the property on that corner, and the letter was referred back to Mr. Hale, to do with as he may see fit.

A petition from a number of the residents in the vicinity of the North Park, asking that the council remove the express wagons, which have made a stand on Bijou street in front of the park, was read. Some argument was held in regard to the matter of where the stand for the wagons should be located if they removed from the park, and a number of suggestions were made. Mayor Robinson was of the opinion that this question should be considered thoroughly by the council before any action is taken, as it is one which will become harder to solve as the city grows larger, and a number of aldermen being of the same opinion, the matter was referred to the police committee, with instructions to report at the next regular meeting of the council.

James E. Burns addressed a letter to the city clerk, in which he requested that the city pay him the sum of $120 rental due him for a suite of rooms in the Durkee building. The city leased rooms in this building April 1, 1900, for the use of the city engineer as offices, for one year, but since the storm they have not been used. The books and papers have not been removed from the vault in the offices, however, and Mr. Burns claims payment in full for the whole year. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The ordinance creating city offices in compliance with the laws for a city of the first-class then came up as special order of business. The office of water commissioner, whose duty it will be to collect rents, issue tapping permits, etc., was created and his salary fixed at $1,200. The ordinance passed unanimously, after a few slight changes had been made.

After a short executive session the council adjourned.

Says the Oil Boom Is Advertising the West.

J. Q. Towne, a retired banker of Elgin, Ill., is in the city for a few days and taking in the scenic delights of this vicinity.

Mr. Towne is a relative of Charles A. Towne of Minnesota.

"Mr. Towne could be in the senate today had he not made that fatal mistake when he affiliated with the Populists and Democrats," said J. Q. Towne at the Alta Vista last night. "He is a brilliant speaker and was much liked in his state until he began to let his sentiments outweigh his political judgment.

"Eastern capitalists are not as much afraid of investing out here now as they were three or four years ago, when Populism had the upper hand. The gradual change back to the old party that I have observed during the past two years, gives a stability to the west that will do much to wear away the edges of the wild and woolly.

"During those years of political chaos, eastern capitalists absolutely shut down on western investments. It was too unsafe. With an undeveloped territory of this extent, eastern capitalists are more than willing to invest if given any show of protection.

"By eastern men, California has always been more favored than Colorado because its government was more normal. Since my last trip to this state several years ago, I notice a degree of conservatism and stability that contrasts very flatteringly with the mushroom newness that pervaded everything then. I meet young eastern men who are in business out here whose fathers I know back east and every one seems to be doing well.

"The oil boom is advertising the west as nothing else has since the early gold discoveries. Out in California, near Los Angeles, oil has been discovered several feet out in the ocean and ten or twelve derricks have been erected, about fifty feet apart, and the vein discovered is an unusually heavy one. Other oil finds in other parts of the state are adding to the already enormous resources of California.

"When I was a boy, I lived near Erie, Pa., and I remember the excitement created by the first discoveries of oil. At one place, the oil was found on the surface of a small stream, and people took sponges and dipped it up. In this way, about a barrel of the precious fluid was collected and it was believed to be a panacea for all the ills that flesh was heir to and was prescribed for everything from sore throat to smallpox. Tallow candles were good enough and when oil lamps came along we thought we were progressing fast enough.

"But the world is moving faster today."

Mr. Towne will remain here several days.

CONNECTING SEWER WITH ANTLERS HOTEL

The city engineer has a gang of men at work putting in the sewer line to the Antlers hotel. This line will tap the main sewer on Sierra Madre street and will be built of eight-inch pipe. It will run from Sierra Madre street north on South Park place, which is the street immediately south of the Antlers hotel, and will enter the hotel at the southwest corner of the building. The work has been going on for some days and will not be completed before the middle of the present month.

A sewer line of eight-inch pipe is also in course of construction on Spruce street to the Bristol school building.

BROKEN BONES FROM A FALL

Mrs. Knapp, wife of Officer C. E. Knapp of 12 South Fourth street, suffered from a severe accident yesterday afternoon by falling down stairs. Her left arm was dislocated by the fall, and two bones in the shoulder were broken. Dr. Leech was called in and is attending the injuries. Mrs. Knapp will probably be confined for a month.

Police Officer Knapp thinks that his family is afflicted by ill fate, inasmuch as this adds to the already long list of accidents that have occurred at his home within the past six years. During that time one death by accidental shooting and seven minor accidents that resulted in broken bones have afflicted his household.

"I had piles so bad I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. After using it once I forgot I ever had anything like piles." E. C. Boice, Somers Point, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's. Hefley Arcularius Drug Co., C. E. Smith, 117 South Tejon street.

LOOKING FOR BONDS—City Clerk Harris has received a number of letters from eastern bond buyers relative to the bond issues which were voted upon at the recent election. A circular letter will be prepared setting forth all the particulars and each of the bond buyers whose letters have been received by the clerk will receive one of the circulars.

DR. ELLISON'S SULPHUR COUGH CURE

This remedy has long been used by the doctor in his practice for the cough incident to consumption, asthma, bronchitis, croup, diphtheria, coughs, colds, hoarseness, loss of voice, sore throat, whooping cough, influenza etc. It will not dry up a cough or cold, but aids nature in throwing off the poisonous mucus produced from diseased lungs or a cold, heals the membrane and restores nature to a healthy condition. It is prompt in its action, and absolutely harmless. There is no morphine, opium, ipecac or injurious drug in its composition. In croup, whooping cough and diphtheria it liquifies the tough, tenacious mucus and aids its expulsion from the system. Price 50 cents a bottle at the office, 24 North Tejon street (over Craigue's grocery store.)

PART AND PARCEL.

A DAINTY box, an exquisite wrapper, a delicate color, and a clinging fragrance yet all these will not cleanse the skin. Has it ever occured to you that you pay big prices for these things? Do you care to buy five articles or do you require only one a strictly pure soap. Remember you pay for perfume whenever you buy it mixed with soap. Don't you think it is wiser to make your own selection of perfume and buy it separately? It is certainly the method adopted by most persons of cultivated taste, those who bathe with pure Ivory Soap.

RAPID TRANSIT IN MOVING OF HOUSES

A new method of moving houses has been introduced into this city by Mr. E. D. Long.

It is in every way in keeping with the times and a house can be moved in about one-third the time formerly required for the same distance. The old wooden rollers, which have been used for moving dwellings for so many years, are a thing of the past and the more modern house movers have many later and better ways.

A good exhibition of the latest method was witnessed by a number of people yesterday, while the house which formerly stood at No. 210 Huerfano street was being rapidly moved along Nevada avenue and Kiowa street. The house is raised by means of jacks and placed on trucks. These trucks have four wheels each and four of them are placed underneath the house. A large wagon, loaded with stone, is used for an anchor and the house is drawn along by two teams of horses. In this way the old method of driving stakes into the ground is done away with and the house is moved a half block without changing the position of the anchor. This dwelling is owned by Dr. Rice and will be placed on the corner of San Rafael and Corona street.

Besides issuing a permit for the moving of the above building, Building Inspector Coray yesterday issued the following permits for buildings in different parts of the city:

R. A. Cheley, six rooms and bath on lot 19 of block 131, in rear of 424 South Tejon street; cost $500.

W. A. Schmidt, two rooms on lot 1 of block 11, on South Nevada avenue; cost $350.

J. E. Byrnes, three rooms on lot 11, block 91, on Wahsatch avenue; cost $400.

J. H. Lauterman, four rooms on the west 45 feet of lots 9 and 10, block 528, on Jackson street in the North End addition; cost $400.

HUNDREDS ENJOY FIREMEN'S BALL

Nearly 400 merry masked dancers attended the volunteer firemen's ball in the Temple theater last night. An attractive entertainment was furnished on the stage at intervals during the night, but dancing was the chief source of enjoyment. The fun lasted until 2 o'clock this morning.

The ball was given for the benefit of the firemen's library fund, and a goodly sum of money was realized.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years." Anderson Riggs of Sunny Lane, Texas. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Hefley Arcularius Drug Co., C. E. Smith, 117 South Tejon street.

THE CHILD WITH GLASSES

Is far more likely to be the adult without glasses than is the weak-eyed little fellow whose eyes are not given timely and proper attention. Protect the naturally defective eye of youth and you are repaid with the strong eye in after life. Abuse the immature eye and it will necessitate glasses, not for a few months only, but for a life time.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY has done special honor to this city by selecting it as a point for a two days' stay in a trip which must necessarily be hurried throughout. This recognition, whether it is because of our superior attractions natural and artificial or because of the character of our people, is one that is and ought to be greatly appreciated by our people. It should be an inducement, were any particular inducement required, to give to the president and his party such a reception as will be one of the most notable and pleasing of the entire trip.

The large committee appointed by the mayor and the chamber of commerce will meet at the Perkins hall this evening, to make suitable arrangements for the reception. An attendance of all the members of the committee is warranted by the importance of the work that it has in hand.

THE STRENGTH OF JAPAN.

CENSUS reports do not measure the strength of a nation. If they did, the simile of Goliath and David would apply very well to Russia and Japan. Russia has more than eight and a half million square miles of territory and a population according to the census of 1897 of 129,000,000. Japan has 147,655 square miles of territory and a population, in 1898, of 43,759,000.

But Japan has elements of strength that Russia is far from possessing, and in a contest waged in eastern Asia it is by no means certain that the little island empire would not come off triumphant in a contest with her gigantic adversary.

One of the chief elements of Japanese strength is the homogeneity of her people. They are practically all of one race, speaking the same language and with the same religion and customs. Russia, on the other hand includes the most diverse kinds of people, scattered over immense areas, and incapable of coherent action under the direction of the emperor and his generals.

Japan is intensely loyal as a nation, while Russia is seamed with disloyalty. A foreign war in Japan would be welcomed with the enthusiasm of patriotism, while in Russia it might serve as the opportunity for revolution.

Japan could throw her entire strength into a war with Russia for the reason that she need fear no other foe. Russia would never dare to exert her full strength against Japan, for like England in dealing with the Boers, she would always need to keep her right arm free for use against a stronger foe.

Japan is compact, where Russia is diffuse, and if the nations have not been entirely mistaken in what they have seen in China the Japanese are the superior of the Russians both in the discipline of their soldiers and the training of their officers. The strides that have been made by the Japanese in various departments of civilization within the past few years are indicative of extraordinary national vitality, which if manifested to the same degree in military affairs would give Japan a strength out of proportion to her numbers.

In the average of her population as well as in the average of her acres Japan is stronger than Russia, but whether the difference would be sufficient to overcome the disparity in numbers is something that only actual experience could determine.

AMERICAN TRADE WITH SPANISH ISLANDS.

SOME very interesting statistics just made public in Washington concern the trade of the United States with the islands that were released from Spanish rule by the war of 1898.

Exports from the United States to Puerto Rico and the Philippines continue to grow. To Cuba there is no perceptible increase in 1901 compared with 1900. To Hawaii the exports are no longer recorded because of the refusal of exporters to continue their statements since the annexation of Hawaii and its establishment as a customs district of the United States. The latest figures of the treasury bureau of statistics show that the exports from the United States to Puerto Rico in the eight months ending with February 1901 were $4,295,953, against $2,219,721 in the corresponding months of the preceding fiscal year, $1,326,663 in the corresponding period ending with February 1899, and $1,200,967 in the corresponding period ending with February 1898.

To the Philippines our exports in the eight months ending with February 1901 were $2,767,881, against $1,701,403 in the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year, $117,021 in the same period of the fiscal year 1899, and $69,235 in the same period ending with February 1898.

To Cuba our exports for the eight months ending with February of the present year were $17,236,752, against $17,172,472 in the corresponding period of the preceding year, $10,142,949 in the eight months ending with February 1899, and $7,689,323 in the same period ending with February 1898.

To the Hawaiian islands the exports cannot, as already indicated, be measured for the present fiscal year, but there is every reason to believe that they are increasing as are those to Puerto Rico and the Philippines. In the eight months ending with February 1900 they increased 50 per cent. over the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year, and now that commerce between the islands and the United States is absolutely unrestricted it is not unreasonable to assume that the figures have materially increased. The total exports to Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines in the eight months ending with February 1901 amounted to $24,300,536 against $21,093,596 in the corresponding period of the fiscal year 1900, $11,586,633 for a like period in 1899, and $8,958,625 for a like period in the fiscal year 1898.

Could the figures of our exports to Hawaii in the present fiscal year be included it is probable that the total exports from the United States to the four islands or groups of islands would amount to $36,000,000 in the eight months under consideration, against $30,000,000 in the corresponding months of the fiscal year 1900, $17,000,000 for the same period of 1899, $13,000,000 for the corresponding period of 1898, and $10,000,000 for the same period of the fiscal year 1896. Thus the exports to these islands have trebled since February 1898, have doubled since 1899 and have increased 25 per cent. in the past year; though to Cuba there has been in the past year no material increase.

Cuba's importers seem less favorably disposed towards the markets of the United States at the latest accounts than in the preceding year. The latest report of the insular bureau of the war department, which is in charge of the Cuban statistics, covers the nine months ending with September 1900. In that period Cuba's imports were $53,305,702, and of that sum, $24,525,659, or 46 per cent. came from the United States and $21,559,239 from Europe; while in the corresponding months of the preceding year Cuba's total imports were $54,036,147, of which $28,094,030, or 50 per cent. came from the United States, and $19,481,660 from Europe.

The following table shows the exports from the United States to Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippine islands in the eight months ending with February in each year from 1896 to 1901:

Eight Months Ending February	Exports from United States to Cuba.	Puerto Rico.	Philip'ns.
1896	$ 5,423,189	$ 1,454,417	$ 82,828
1897	5,494,777	1,369,297	89,011
1898	7,689,323	1,200,967	69,235
1899	10,142,949	1,326,663	117,021
1900	17,172,427	2,219,721	1,701,403
1901	17,236,752	4,295,953	2,767,881

These figures speak eloquently of the trade opportunities that have been opened to us by the events of the past two years, but they represent only the beginnings of our opportunities. Puerto Rico is a field for the investment of American capital in ways that will bring rich returns. The political uncertainties of Cuba have made it impossible for anyone, either foreigner or native to develop the natural resources of the islands. As for the Philippines they are a storehouse of undeveloped wealth whose extent can only be imagined. We have only made a beginning of Pacific trade and the increase of the past two years, great as it has been, may continue indefinitely at the same rate without exhausting the possibilities that lie around the rim of the western ocean.

Except in Cuba the development of our commerce with the Spanish islands is proceeding most satisfactorily and the promise of the future is many times more favorable than the facts of the past.

COLORADO SPRINGS' WHOLESALE TRADE.

AN exceptionally favorable condition exists at the present time for pushing the wholesale trade of Colorado Springs. For the past years this city has enjoyed much more than its share of prosperity and it has changed from a small city to a much larger one. Accompanying this growth there has come an expansion of its interests and influence along many lines and the city is known throughout the state in a way that would have been considered to be impossible a few years ago.

An example of the growth of Colorado Springs' interests in the state is afforded by the Gazette, which, for more than a year past has been a state paper in everything that the term implies. It has its regular carriers in all the larger cities of the state who deliver the paper to subscribers with just as much regularity as in Colorado Springs. Its correspondents are engaged in every important news center of the state and these promptly report all events of importance as they transpire. The circulation field of the Gazette has grown to include every county of the state, and the numbers sent out show a constant increase.

There can be no doubt that this state circulation of the Gazette through all these months has been a great benefit to the city and especially to those who are in a business that is affected by outside interests. By this means the name and fame of Colorado Springs have been greatly extended throughout the state, and actual business results have been numerous and important.

But while much in the way of promoting Colorado Springs' business interests has been done, the matter should not rest here. Colorado Springs has exceptional advantages as a railway center and it is not surpassed by any other city as a center of wholesale supply. The present is a favorable time for action, and persistent effort will bring success. Colorado Springs ought to be more of a wholesale point than it now is, and the present is a good time for an effort to make it so.

THE SCHOOL ELECTION.

IN another column this morning the Gazette publishes the official call for the election of a member of the Colorado Springs board of education, said election to be held on Monday, May 6.

In selecting a person for this position the voters of this school district should be guided by a desire to maintain the schools of this city at the same high level upon which they have been conducted.

The position is one of high honor and opportunity for public service. As there is no salary attached to the office it seldom commends itself to those who seek public positions for what there is in them, but the person who is willing to work for the benefit of the public finds this an excellent opportunity.

The office is not a political one, and neither partisan feeling nor personal preference should be allowed to influence the choice. The man who is best qualified for the position is the one that should be chosen, if it be fortunate enough that he is willing to serve the city in this capacity.

THE KAISER AND HIS PEOPLE.

EMPEROR WILLIAM ought to know, though apparently he does not, that he is doing a dangerous, as well as a wrong thing in accusing his subjects of disloyalty and taking occasion to impress upon his soldiers their duty in guarding him from attacks of the mob.

So far the German people have been loyal in spite of the fact that the emperor has done much to justify disloyalty. But there is no surer method of arousing public sentiment against the throne than by predicting a revolution and preparing for a revolt of which there are no present signs.

If the kaiser acts like the czar he will soon be treated like him.

THE MAYOR'S APPOINTMENTS.

THE suggestions of various kinds that have been made in regard to the appointments to be made by the mayor, will doubtless be received by him in the spirit in which they were made.

But the appointments will be made by Dr John R. Robinson, and by no one else.

The people elected him as mayor for that purpose, and they have confidence that he will perform his duty as he sees it without fear or favor.

And the people will back him up in it.

We notice that Kansas is preparing to bring suit against Colorado on account of water taken from the Arkansas river. But if the Kansans expect to collect any damages they have an entirely wrong notion of the financial ability of our fusion legislature.

Our Large Contracts and Small Means as a World Power.

(New York Press.)

The country's propulsion along the current of events into the bee [illegible] of world politics has become so steady as no longer to attract public attention. The protest of the state department against the cession of Manchuria by China to Russia would two years ago have set all our parochialists to tolling all our parish bells over "the death of the republic." Today it is taken as a matter of course. When, sooner or later, the awakening of the American people to the Asian situation causes us to interpose some later and stronger objection to dismemberment, that will be taken, too, as a matter of course.

As we are fairly afloat, it is advisable to look to our equipment. It is well so far as it goes, but there were signs in the last congress of a failure to realize the needs of the cruise. In fact, there were signs of a complete non-comprehension of the changed requirements of the country in the naval arm of its military service. Congress has always been without a policy in naval construction, except one of antipathy to the navy. It has granted only what it feared to withhold. Of late years it has granted much, for the reason that the appalling state of defenselessness during the Spanish war caused it to fear much. When one squadron of five ships was left for the defense of the whole Atlantic coats after after the installation of the blockade of Havana the sins of omission of legislation of generations showed their scarlet hue. But the scare is over. The seaboard citizen has forgotten his fear of Spanish shells. The politician has forgotten his fear of the seaboard citizen.

In consequence there was at the last session for the first time in ten years no authorization of new battleships in the naval bill. This showed at best a complete ignorance of the construction programmes of the world. But worse than this, an attempt was made in the senate to return to the policy of dependence on mechanical contrivances for national defense. In place of the battleships authorized by the house there was inserted a provision for a number of submarine boats. We wish that this was only jobbery. A certain degree of corruption is inseparable from government organized as is our government in the United States senate. But it was far worse than jobbery. It was levity. It was such an act as in a personal ruler we should attribute to lack of mental balance. If the kaiser should suddenly tear up his naval programme of battleships and cruisers and set about buying little patent explosive contraptions in their stead we should all sneer "William the Flighty!" Fortunately this scheme was defeated by the house conferees under circumstances which would have led a self-respecting man in the place of its author, Senator Hale, to resign the chairmanship of his committee. But the fact that the senate thought the present a fitting time to stop building fighting vessels and return to the primitive Jeffersonian theory of naval needs—the submarine boat being substituted for the gunboat—is distinctly disquieting.

The fact that the country must realize, and that its representatives must be made to realize, is that its naval responsibilities of the future are second only to those of Great Britain, and a very close second to hers. As we have noted, the commercial expansion of the nation binds us absolutely to the preservation of the status quo in Asia. We are pledged to the hilt to maintain the integrity of the Chinese empire. At the same time, though this fact, together with our absorption of the Philippines, leaves the Monroe doctrine without a logical leg to stand on, we were never so loud—and especially in this same senate—in our insistence on the maintenance of the status quo in South America. Alone among the nations we are charged with the holding together of a lot of shaky Latin-Indian republics and a crumbling Asian empire. And it is at this period that the congress of the United States sees fit to discontinue new construction in the navy!

On this point public opinion must arouse itself before the next congress assembles. On paper our present strength of vessels built and building makes a fine show. We can even arrive at a total of 25 battleships and 16 armored cruisers, which is respectable even when compared with Germany's contemplated exhibit of 56 ships of the line at the completion of her present programme. But it is to be remembered that there is no provision for the replacing of outworn vessels and obsolete types, and that by the time that the Utah (if so our latest battleship be named) is in commission, the Texas, now 9 years old, and the Indiana, Massachusetts and Oregon, 8 years old, will be fit only for the reserve. It is to be remembered also that with an authorized personnel of 1,272 officers and 22,181 men we have only 1,062 and 14,996, respectively, commissioned and enlisted. Germany has 35,069 men now. In 1920, when her programme is completed, she will have 55,000. And, Germany, be it marked, has nothing to defend. Hers is a navy strictly for aggression. As a recent writer (W. S. Meriwether), in a popular periodical, has neatly summarized her position and aims:

"Unquestionably her great need is that of vacant spaces for her surplus population. She was just too late in the field to get her fair share in the great scramble for territory that marked the closing years of the nineteenth century. We probably prevented her from buying the Philippines, and she is barred from South America as long as we are prepared to enforce the Monroe doctrine a formula that rests not on any law of nations but on our power to maintain it. In war time—and wars must come—colonies fall like ripe apples into the hands of those who can take them—that is, of those who have strong fleets."

Is the American people not sovereign enough to impose on its congress any policy of naval defense? The German kaiser, at whom it likes to laugh, is able to impose on his reichstag a vast, far-reaching scheme of naval offense and territorial conquest. It is a scheme whose effects will be felt first of all by a power which, like the United States, has assumed immense liabilities in new and old world politics without as yet taking a single continuous and comprehensive thought as to the assembling of assets to discharge them. If we are a serious people we must take serious thought of the contracts which we have made at both the far ends of the earth and the manner in which we shall meet them.

Democrats Throwing Stones.

(Topeka Capital.)

Hon. W. J. Bryan's Commoner pays Hon. Grover Cleveland a backhanded compliment that can not fail to [illegible] the harmony of the Democratic party. As president, Cleveland, says the Commoner, turned the treasury over to a foreign financial syndicate [illegible] J. Pierpont Morgan with the [illegible] tion of the government vaults" and played into the hands of the plutocracy generally. After his retirement as president he did nothing to aid his party. But—

As soon as the election was over he came forth from his seclusion and made the air vocal with his suggestions. Assuming to be inspired by a pure Democracy and boasting of a superior virtue, he began to offer unsolicited advice to the party to which he once belonged. He is like the soldier who was described as "invisible in war and invincible in peace." To desertion of the party organization and betrayal of the principles of the party he adds ostentatious pretense of interest in the plain people, while he conceals his ideas in ponderous and platitudinous phrases.

A few ponderous and platitudinous phrases from the ex-president on the conduct of the editor of the Commoner are now in order. How Bryan became "invisible in war" because of his famous attack of military lockjaw and "made the air vocal" when he was allowed to resign by abusing the government, how he led the Democracy out of the beaten track, away from its ancient landmarks and into the by and forbidden ways of Populism, would be an interesting story as related by the man whom Bryan supplanted in the party leadership. Both of these eminent Democrats have their faults, but as other Democrats look back upon the events of the last few years the thing that stands out is that Cleveland twice led them to national victory and Bryan twice led them to humiliating and disastrous defeat. Cleveland is the only Democrat elected president in 50 years from 1856 to 1904 at the least—and Bryan is the only Democrat in the history of the country who was twice defeated. For a man who lives in as brittle a house, Bryan is reckless in the way he throws stones at his Democratic neighbors.

May Have Discovered the Cause of Cancer.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Every one will hope for the confirmation of Professor Gaylord's belief that he has discovered the cause of cancer. Professor Gaylord is the director of the pathological laboratory which was established by the state of New York at the University of Buffalo, primarily for the purpose of investigating the origin of cancer with a view to discovering its cure. He has for a long time been engaged in a patient and exhaustive study of the subject, and the results of his experiments have now reached a point at which he feels justified in announcing, not with absolute certainty but with a considerable degree of assurance, that his investigations have been successful. He thinks that he has found the cancer germ, and while the truth of his hypothesis remains to be demonstrated, there is reason to believe that the pathological probabilities rather favor than oppose its accuracy.

So many similar discoveries have been proclaimed only to be refuted that it would not be prudent to assume the correctness of Professor Gaylord's theories and observations, yet no one can doubt that some day the secret of this dreaded and dreadful malady will be discovered and in the meanwhile even the investigators who do not succeed, themselves help to make the road to success easier to others. Cancer is perhaps the one disease as to whose nature the medical profession is almost as much in the dark as at any time since the disease became the subject of scientific study, and it is the one as to whose prognosis there is the least room for hope. Up to this time immediate and absolute excision constitutes the only remedy to which the physician is inclined to attach any serious importance, and that this does not always succeed no one needs to be told. Fortunately, the wonderful advance of surgery of recent years renders many operations possible which formerly were out of the question, and to that extent the ability to cope with the disease has been increased.

The world is anxiously waiting for the discovery which Professor Gaylord thinks that he has made and the man who, having ascertained the cause, proceeds to apply the remedy will be numbered among the greatest benefactors of the race. Whatever may be the reason for the circumstance, it is a fact that the reported number of cancer cases is steadily, largely and rapidly increasing. This increase may possibly be more apparent than real. It may be due to the fact that statistics of this kind are collected much more thoroughly and accurately than was the case a century or even half a century ago. But it looks as though there were some element in the conditions of modern life which favored the development of the malady and the ascertainment of that element is one of the phases of the problem to be solved. It will be solved sooner or later. According to the news from Buffalo it may have been solved already.

(Iowa State Register.)

Iowa State Register.

Count Leo Tolstoy has paid the price of freedom of speech in the land of the czar, and the dispatches tell of his being taken to the frontier to be banished from Russia. This action of the czar is likely to have an important and serious effect upon the condition of affairs in that empire, as it is admitted that a crisis is at hand, and there is no doubt but that thousands of the people look upon Tolstoy as a great emancipator. Prince Sergius Krapotkine, the famous exile who has lived for a number of years in London, says that there is now no doubt but that the constitutional government of Russia will come to an end with the dawning of this new century, and that the present outbreak appears to him to be the beginning of the end. When the nihilist rising came in 1896, the plot and flight of the nihilist leader, Boutzeff, in 1897, the attempt on the czar's train at Elbing in 1898, and the czar's effort to abdicate in 1899, Prince Krapotkine each time said that the day for the revolution was not yet at hand, but now he says the day has arrived, that the excommunication of Tolstoy was what caused the crisis, and that his exile is the last straw that breaks the camel's back. Tolstoy is loved, honored and respected by all the students who have been causing so much trouble of late, and now comes the news that in the university of Kieff a thousand students have forwarded a petition to the czar asking that they too be excommunicated with Tolstoy. The rioters have been ordered to leave St. Petersburg within three days and there are sure to be interesting developments in a very short time. The [illegible] Russian [illegible] great [illegible] the [illegible] certain that [illegible] nearer at hand.

Formerly, homestead or government land could only be obtained in parcels of 160 acres—that is a man was limited in buying government land to just that quantity A recent law passed down there permits one to take up four sections 2 560 acres But it isn t the native Texan who is profiting by this but the rustling enterprising northern and western man The big ranches are owned almost without exception by northern and western people At some of these ranches when the young folks take a stroll to the front gate twenty-five miles distant it is an all day s trip before they can return and although all the pasturage is fenced in I have often driven fifty miles from one pasture gat to another

The farmers in Texas enjoy life as they do nowhere else In the fall of the year, when all other crops are in entire families go camping along the river timber lands, and after three or four days outing, they return with great wagon loads of pecan nuts, which is just like picking up money from the ground The exportations last year, from one county alone, amounted to over $ 0 000

To paraphrase Horace Greeley s advice I should say Go to Texas young man, and grow up with the country

The prospect for a good mark t in this city the coming summer is very bright From all indications the market will be better stocked and will contain more vegetables and fruits this year than it has for a good many years past The reasons for this are many Last spring at this time there were about fifty tons of poultry and other meats in cold storage while at the present time there is less than one ton, and in a weeks time there will not be any poultry in storage Consequently the spring poultry which will be offered for sale in the Colorado Springs markets will be shipped in fresh At pres nt there is very little poultry in the market and as soon as it com s in it is sold at good price The vegetables which are coming in now are mostly spinach onions and l t tuce and they are all fresh from the gardens and very nice There are a few Texas strawberries in the markets but it is rather early for summer fruits

WILL REAPPOINT L. C. DANA POSTMASTER

The following spe ial dispatch to the Gazette announcing the determination of President McKinley to reappoint Mr L C Dana postmaster at Colorado Springs was received last evening

Washington, D. C., April 8 1901
To the Gazette Colorado Springs Colo

It was decided today by the postoffice department and the president that L C Dana postmaster at Colorado Springs whose four year term is about to expire shall continue to hold the office under the present commission until congress convenes in December when he will be renominated for a second term Similar action is being taken in other cases in which incumbents terms expire during recess of congress and when reappointment is decided on This action is taken to obviate appointees giving extra bond for term of a short recess appointment

Colorado Springs people generally will be pleased to learn that the action above referred to has been taken by the president

Mr Dana s administration of the affairs of the Colorado Springs postoffice has been the most progressive that the people have ever had and there is not a section of the city anywhere or even of the surrounding country that has not profited very materially by reason of the efforts made by Mr Dana to improve the local postal service The growth of the local postoffice has been so great that it is regarded by the department as one of the best paying offices in the country

When informed last evening by a Gazette representative that the president had directed that he continue to hold office under the present commission Mr Dana had not heard of it

He stated that some time ago Senator Wolcott informed him that his name had been handed to the president but that it could not be acted upon at the session of congress then being held because the commission did t expire until after the time for adjournment

Mr Dana s commission expires April 14

TO PROCURE TREES FOR CITY STREETS

The superintendent of the waterworks will put men to work this morning to open up the big ditch which brings water from a point west of Colorado City to this city for irrigation purposes The ditch has to be cleaned every spring but it is in fairly good condition this year and will not require very much work before it can be used The big ditch supplies all of the smaller irrigation ditches which run along the sides of the streets south of Buena Ventura street with water from Fountain creek Water for irrigation purposes north of Buena Ventura street is brought by ditches from the reservoir northwest of the city

The water department is very busy tapping the different mains for the purpose of conveying water to the new residences and buildings which are being built in all parts of the city Nearly 100 taps were made last month and judging from the number which have been made in the past week the month of April will be a record breaker for this branch of the department

ELLIE AND VINDICATOR

Work in Progress on Connection---Returns From Gould Shipment ---Work on the Bluebird Shaft.

Special to the Gazette
Cripple Creek Colo April 8—An upraise is in progress from the 1,00 foot level of the Ellie mine extended into the Vindicator to make the connection with the Vindicator shaft. There is about [illegible] feet would be done in the upraise and sinking. Manager Camp [illegible] of the Vindicator states that some very fine ore is being mined in the 900 and 1000 foot levels. The rock through which the shaft is now going is extremely hard and making progress slow even with the machine drills which are used.

The Gould company sent out three car loads of ore last week from the Jennie Sample mine on Raven hill. One of the cars gave excellent returns the ore running $80 to the ton in gold. The other two cars were of lower grade running from $30 to $37 to the ton. The company is making an excellent production from the mine the bulk of the ore coming from the 400 foot level. A drift is being run on the main vein in the 500 foot level and from the improvements in all of the vein matter it would seem that the ore shoot is not far away.

Hall and associates leasing on the Eagle [illegible] the Battle Mountain Consolidated company yesterday sent out a [illegible] shipment which is expected to run from three to five ounces in gold to the ton. The lessees have opened up the same vein in crosscutting from the Uintah tunnel. The lessees expect to maintain a regular production of good grade ore from the property.

The contractors who are engaged in sinking the Bluebird shaft are nearing the 800 foot depth. The first 500 feet of the shaft is on an incline but the 300 feet additional which has been contracted for is vertical. Stations have been cut and crosscuts are being run for the main vein at the 600 and 700 foot levels. After the shaft has been put down to the 1,000 foot point considerable crosscutting will be done.

Lessee Devine operating the Bluejay on Bull hill has reached a depth of sixty feet in an incline shaft and is drifting north and south at this depth. Some pay values have been encountered in the north drift while a shoot one foot in width in the south drift gives returns of $50 per ton for screenings. A little ore is being saved.

The force on the Victor mine has been increased by Lessee Osgood who is taking out a good production from the main workings. The lessee intends to increase his output as some good ore has been opened up in the recent development. He is now sending out about 150 tons per week which will be increased to over 200. His lease expires in July.

EXAMINATION OF BLANCHE

Shows Enough Three-ounce Ore in Sight to Maintain Shipments For Some Time---Work now in Full Swing.

Expert Murphy yesterday concluded his examination of the Uncle Sam mine of the Blanche Gold Mining company, and an officer of the company stated that his report was entirely favorable. He was at work for several days in the different portions of the mine and although has not yet calculated as to the amount of ore in sight, he says that the ore averages three ounces, and that there is a sufficient amount of it available to keep men at work in the stopes for some time.

The result of the examination is that Lessee Guy Glenn will continue work on the original royalties 30 per cent flat on all ore mined.

As announced in Sunday's paper work was suspended by the lessee a few weeks ago in the hopes of making a royalty agreement more favorable to himself and the action which the company took in the matter was to have the examination made.

Work is now in full swing and the lessee who is encouraged by the character of the report even if he has not secured a reduction hopes to maintain a good output from now on. Formerly he was shipping a car of ore a day and he will be able to do the same now for some time. At the same time he will cut for the shoot in the 300-foot level.

ELEANOR GETS SEDAN VEIN

At a Distance of 50 Feet it is Cut and Found Six Inches Wide of a Similar Appearance to the Body in Adjoining Claims.

At a depth of 50 feet in the Eleanor property on the Cameron townsite Lessee White yesterday cut what is supposed to be the Sedan Sunshine vein in a crosscut which had been run to catch it.

An officer of the company stated this much yesterday afternoon but said that he had no particulars. Mr Lyman White the lessee was interviewed over the phone and said that the vein was about six inches wide and looked very promising although the samples of the rock which he took from the vein had not yet been assayed.

The Eleanor property is located immediately south of the Sedan and Sunshine, in such a position that no matter which of those two companies establishes a right to the lode it will pass through Eleanor ground. In a second shaft on the Sunshine property but a few hundred feet from the Eleanor line the ore has been opened and found to be as rich as it was further up the hill and the officers of the Eleanor company are very confident that they will open a good shoot.

HUTCHISON BACK FROM BEAUMONT

"A Mutual Protective Association" he Says is Being Organized to Keep up the Price of Oil---The Sixth Gusher.

H Hutchison returned Sunday noon from a visit to the oil fields near Beaumont Tex and comes back laden with as much enthusiasm as Mr Dorsey manifested over the possibilities of this wonderful district.

He spoke of the wonderful flow of the oil wells the sixth of which has now come in and of the market which will spring up because of the desire of the whole south to burn oil now instead of coal and save for themselves thousands of dollars but an interesting and new light which he was able to give on the situation is this.

Gaylord & Guffey said Mr Hutchison control the Lucas gusher and will soon control the market for the entire output of the district. A mutual protective association has been organized which is to have a director from each of the oil companies on its board to keep up the price of the oil. If something like this were not done competition might reduce the price very materially from the present wholesale rate of 10 cents a barrel. Gaylord & Guffey own the pipe line to Port Arthur where they are now erecting a huge million barrel tank, and later they will connect their pipe line to every well in the district and take its oil handling the output for the companies.

"The inhabitants of Beaumont are all agog for oil stocks and as the Grace shares are being placed much cheaper than any others they are especially popular. On the day I came away there was a row of people waiting before the bank to subscribe to the stock of this company.

"The Grace company has ordered a rotary drilling rig from Pittsburg and it should be on the ground by Friday. Drilling will then begin at once on lot 32.

"The market for the product is practically assured," he said in reply to a statement that there was some skepticism in this city about that. "Already one of the largest flouring mills on the coast has signed a contract for oil to run its furnaces and all the railroads and manufacturers will use it as it means an immense saving. It is being used now on a small scale by those who are drilling wells. Teams go around every morning securing the oil from the wells which have already to come in to furnish the power for those which are being drilled."

LEASED UTAH OIL LANDS

George Gardener Has Returned From Salt Lake Where he Leased 3,500 Acres of Green River Fields.

Mr George Gardiner returned yesterday from Salt Lake City where he went in the interest of the oil proposition recently secured by him and the Crosby-Elrich syndicate.

He reports that a half of the 7,000 acres which they have leased in the Green River fields is now being leased to prominent Salt Lake people who are very strongly interested and who will start active work at once. They have interested with them in the lease some eastern capitalists who are prepared to spend a large amount of money in securing the oil.

The lessees have ordered the outfits for drilling and will start work at once paying a [illegible] royalty on all the oil they obtain. They expect to encounter it at a depth of about 500 feet from the surface which is by no means impossible as the oil has already been opened in a shallow well.

Mr Gardner and the syndicate will at once organize a company to work the remaining portion of the tract.

These oil lands are a part of the system of the Wyoming fields of which Evanston is the latest section to come into great prominence. An expert who [illegible] land now owned by the [illegible] people reports that the same quality of oil should be encountered in Utah which Wyoming is producing and the latter is acknowledged to be the finest grade of petroleum in the world.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

A notice has been issued to the stockholders of the Certain Gold Mining company of a meeting to be held on May 9 in this city for the purpose of increasing the capitalization of the company from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. The change will probably be made by organizing a new company in Wyoming with the latter capitalization. The increase is to be made for the purpose of paying off the present indebtedness of the company and [illegible] funds for the [illegible] of [illegible] properties on Galena hill [illegible] tional business of an annual meeting but they will be requested to ratify a sale proposed by the directors to another company with a capitalization of 1,500,000 shares. This will give the company a large surplus in the treasury with which it can purchase additional territory and prosecute development work. The meeting is to be held at No 282 Bennett avenue at 4 p m.

William M Evarts and the Johnson Impeachment Trial.

Probably however, the very greatest personal service that William Maxwell Evarts rendered to the people of the United States was that which he performed as principal counsel for President Johnson in the great impeachment trial in 1868. Whatever policy Mr Lincoln in his second term might have chosen to pursue in dealing with the south after the termination of the war it is likely enough that he could have carried with him the public opinion of the country and the support of congress. But his assassination resulted in elevating to the presidency an ill qualified and stubborn man between whom and the great Republican majority in congress there was an ever widening breach. This reached its climax when Johnson summarily removed Mr Stanton from the office of secretary of war. Congress had previously passed a tenure of office act requiring the consent of the senate to the dismissal of any such high official as a cabinet officer. The house of representatives immediately resolved upon impeachment and as provided by the constitution the senate prepared to hear the charges under the presidency of Chief Justice Chase. Nearly all the members of the senate were Republican and the sentiment in favor of sustaining the charges was overwhelming. There followed the greatest impeachment trial in all history.

Congress was impelled in its action against Johnson by sincere conviction and its leaders were men of such unity and force of purpose as we have not seen in congress at any time since then. A two thirds vote of the senate was required to convict. This outcome failed by a single vote. It is reasonable to say that to Mr Evarts was due a result that all Republicans have since learned to regard as most wise and fortunate. Andrew Johnson's behavior was unbecoming and vexatious but he was not guilty of high crimes and to have removed him from office would have been a triumph of political feeling over that calm judicial spirit and that forbearance in critical emergencies that are essential to the carrying on of our system of popular government. Mr Evarts' argument was on the loftiest grounds and it was he who succeeded in infusing something of the judicial spirit into what might otherwise have been strictly a political proceeding. THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, April 8.—The market opened this morning after three days' vacation with the trading very brisk, probably due to an accumulation of orders, but prices still low with few exceptions. There was almost no difficulty experienced by those who had buying orders to fill in getting the stock at the prices stipulated. But as for any improvement in the general tone of the market, it was distinctly lacking, the prices showing many losses below the prices of Thursday. In the mines list there were a few exceptions to the rule, but even there some of the most conspicuous examples of weakness were manifested. The showing made by Cripple Creek last month has had no effect on the market. Indeed it is so that any good news seems to act upon it with just the reverse of the effect which might be expected.

The market upon the afternoon call was good in point of trading, but in point of prices there were several weaknesses developed. In the mines Anaconda was 42½, Doctor opened at 86⅝ and closed at 86. El Paso 44, Gold Dollar showed considerable weakness at 19½, Isabella 70¼, Pharmacist was the most active at 10, Portland 30 and 30¼ weak at 17¼. The preferred prospects were medium traders, Eleanor 3¼, Missouri 12⅝, Mollie D active at 5⅜ and Wide Awake at 4¾ was also active. Trading was good in the prospects, Helen B 33⅛, Magic the most active at 008, Navajo 2. Medium trading in the unclassified, Ben Hur 8¼, Damon 13½, Gold Sovereign 6, Lucrative 2⅝, Sedan weaker at 10 (buyer 30), Zoe closed at 4½.

The sales for the day amounted to 5,99,265 shares, of which the cash value was $68,895.

EASTERN MARKETS.

New York, April 8.—The call loan rate proved again to be the solar plexus of the stock market, as it has done on many occasions before. The constriction of the money supply and the advance in the rate for call money precipitated such a spasm of liquidation as threw the stock market into a condition bordering on demoralization. What happened today in the stock market is what, according to the common agreement of [illegible], was bound to happen in due course of time. Nevertheless, as is the wont of stock market happenings, the day's events came as a surprise. Even the most enthusiastic bull has agreed to the proposition that such a rampant speculation as has been going on for weeks past was bound to overdo itself and be followed by a relapse of corresponding violence. Only the enthusiastic bull has clung to the supposition that the relapse was still remote and has continually moved forward the supposed date of its occurrence in the hope that there was time for still another speculative turn. Even the wild and excited market of last week, which was an ominous symptom, left the bulls unprepared for today's developments. Tips for a rise in many stocks were still widely prevalent before the opening this morning and the explanation was offered that Thursday's flurry in call loan rates was due to manipulation by the bears. But the instant the market opened it became evident that the developments since Thursday had induced a widespread determination to sell stocks. Another palpable fact was that some of the most powerful operators in the market had already sold their holdings and taken profits during the wild excitement of last week and were compactly [illegible] on the bear side of the market this morning. Perceiving the [illegible] marker owing to the over-extension of long accounts [illegible] and backed by weak resources, the bears fell upon the market with great force and [illegible] at the first onslaught. [illegible] of the first [illegible] by successive drops from 1 to 2½ points between sales invited quick profit-taking by the bears and the violent rallies which ensued encouraged the bulls to [illegible] hoping that the flurry was temporary and the market prepared to renew the advance. This was the only period of the day when there was any show of positive strength and Sugar, People's Gas, Texas & Pacific and a number of less important stocks were [illegible] sharply over last Thursday's [illegible]. The strength was short lived [illegible] after the demand from the bears had been satisfied many of the [illegible] began calling loans. This [illegible] a fresh supply of liquidation to the market and invited fresh attack by the bears. The selling became precipitate as the fall in prices wiped out margins and uncovered stop-loss orders and the [illegible] bulls jettisoned great [illegible] with the hope of relieving their [illegible] and saving other holdings from the shipwreck. The only important [illegible] made at any time came from the [illegible] and the occasional [illegible] were not held in any case. This was true of the last as of former rallies, although prices had not fallen back to the lowest at [illegible] on the down grade [illegible] the [illegible] a light [illegible] The [illegible] reached [illegible] 6½ in Delaware & Hudson [illegible] Amalgamated Copper 7½ in Colorado Fuel preferred, and from 2 to 5 points in practically all of the active stocks on the list. The Grangers, Pacifics, Southwesterns, Southern, Coalers, Trunk Lines, and high-priced specialties were most acutely affected.

Sterling exchange eased off slightly in response to the higher money rate, but the conviction was not altered that a large additional sum of gold will be exported to meet the requirements of the London money market in connection with the coming government loans. The movement of money to the interior, as disclosed by Saturday's bank statement, was unexpectedly heavy and would be sufficient, if continued, to quickly wipe out the surplus of the New York banks, but any considerable stringency in New York would undoubtedly arrest this movement to some extent, although the purely commercial bids for money are likely to be met without regard to distress of purely speculative borrowers.

The sub-treasury drain, which is destined to continue, is more feared than any other source of encroachment, and the conditional offer of the secretary of the treasury to redeem government bonds for the sinking fund is felt to offer little hope of relief for the stock market.

Business in bonds was relatively less active than that in stocks and the movement of prices was irregular. Total sales, par value $3,510,000. United States refunding 2s advanced ¼ and new 4s ¼ per cent. on the last call.

The Metal Market.

New York, April 8.—There was very little interest in the way of new features in metal circles today. The absence of information from abroad, owing to the continued observance of the Easter holidays at that point, exerted a disposition here to trade cautiously. The only change shown here was in tin, that metal advancing on good local inquiry at $26.20@26.35, at which figure the market closed very strong for spot goods. The rest of the general list were without quotable change. Domestic iron was quiet at $9.50@10.50 for pig iron warrants, northern foundry $15.25@16.50, southern foundry $14.00@15.50 and southern $13@15.50. Copper was dull at $17.00 for lake and 16⅝ for casting and electrolytic. Lead unchanged at $4.37½ and spelter quiet at $3.90@3.95.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, April 8. The grain markets regained their normal appearance today and ruled active and firm. May wheat closed ⅝ and May corn ⅛@¼ higher. May oats a shade lower. Provisions were from 2½c lower for ribs to 35c lower for pork.

For a moment at the opening the corn market resembled to a degree the wildness which characterized the market last week. Seasonable weather and liberal receipts caused a rush to sell at the start, and May ranged from 44 to 43¾c, ⅛ to ⅜c under Saturday's closing price. Greater weakness had been expected, and when it failed to materialize shorts covered and the market worked back to 44⅜@½. Profit-taking by country holders although on a moderate scale, caused a reaction during the forenoon to 43⅞@¾c. Light primary receipts—[illegible] bushels against 1,060,000 a year ago—a visible increase of 297,000 bushels and the wheat strength caused a rally from this to 44⅜c, and the close was firm, May ¼@⅜c higher at 44¼@⅜c. The volume of business was very much less than had been the average recently. Phillips, the bull leader, did but little. Wheat was still feeling the bearishness of Snow's crop report at the opening today. Sentiment was further weakened by seasonable weather, liberal receipts and an increase on passage. Bears were active at the start. May [illegible] under the previous close. A report that German wheat had suffered from frost and a similar rumor from California started shorts covering. It developed that the market had been sold to a standstill. Very little wheat was to be had and May reacted sharply to 70⅝c. A visible decrease of 850,000 bushels, lighter primary receipts, heavy clearances and a good export demand later imparted additional strength and May rallied to 71½c. Commission houses sold on the advance, but the close was firm, May ½c higher at 71¼c. It was reported later that the California frosts had done little damage to grains.

The market for oats was dull and the range of prices narrow. May sold between 25⅝@¾c and 25⅜c and closed a shade down at 25½@⅝c. Receipts were 221 cars. The tone of the market was easier in sympathy with the cash market.

Provisions were dull and weak. May pork leading the decline under liquidation by outside holders to secure what profits remained.

Denver Produce.

Denver, April 8.—There was a general strong tone to the market here today. The receipts of fresh poultry were light and the market opened very strong. The price of eggs keeps up in the country and merchants are puzzled to know just what the situation will develop. Other lines open featureless and prices are unchanged.

YOUNG MEN'S OPPORTUNITIES.

A Wider and More Inviting Field for Grit and Talent.

(Baltimore American.)

The financial world has been in a whirl of excitement during the past six months as it has watched the changes in industrial affairs. The the times when men of talent are at ganizations ever known has been brought into being. The recruiting, drilling and equipping of vast armies have not required a greater genius. Immense projects, involving millions of money, affecting thousands of people, embracing a multitude of details, have been conceived, then undertaken, and finally driven forward to profitable success.

The men behind these schemes have not been heirs to their destiny by divine right. Their destiny has been made. A study of the men who have been the soul and the energy of these colossal ventures will be a refutation to the wall that the American boys have been robbed of their future. This country never presented better opportunities to its young men than it does at present. The big industrial combinations have not destroyed the young men's hopes. They have, on the contrary, furnished a new impetus for harder work and for brilliant achievement. The wonderful evolution in the world of industry has opened up new fields. No longer do fathers dilate upon the glories of war as the vocation in which to win honors and fame. Bold conceptions, daring enterprise and superb generalship now find their congenial employment in the development of the industrial forces and in the conquest of commercial territory. Genius never had a better incentive than present day conditions can offer. These are the times when men of talent are at a premium, and when individual capacity will command the most profitable recognition.

The most comforting fact about the whole problem is that the new conditions call for men of value, and not for men of merely an honorable genealogy. Never has the American lesson of success been more forcibly written than it has in the recent steel deal. The leaders of that project were men whose boyhood was the very ideal of unpromising obscurity. Pluck and application, boldness and determination, however, have converted that obscurity into wealth and success. The rulers of the present industrial age in America are men who have sprung from apparently hopeless poverty. They have worked out their genius, and are now winning battles more honorable than the bloody ones of Caesar or of Napoleon.

The same opportunities are open to all. The big projects of the day demand genius to manage them; they cannot survive with mediocrity at the helm. The young son of obscurity, therefore, who proves his worth will always command a premium over the favored pet of wealth. Sons of rich men, who have neither brain nor grit behind them have less prospects for success than the poor boys of genius. The future is still beckoning to the sons of apparent obscurity to fight on, and is waiting to crown their efforts with success.

"The Largest, Strongest Insurance Company in the World."

The Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Of New York,

RICHARD A. McCURDY, President.

Did more business in 1900 than during any previous year of its history. It easily maintains its position as the "largest, strongest, most progressive life insurance company in the world." The statement of the company for the year ending December 31, 1900, shows:

Income	$60,582,802.31
Paid to Policy-Holders	$26,361,863.83
Assets	$325,753,152.51
Insurance and Annuities in force	$1,141,497,888.02

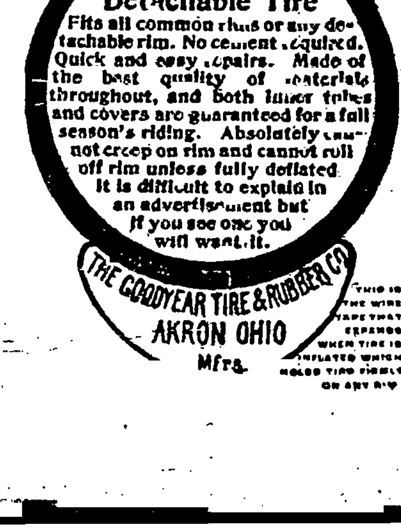

The assets of the Mutual Life are clean and well invested. The company refuses to take risks in countries where climatic conditions are at all dangerous and it does not write insurance on subjects who are in any respects below standard. The result of this careful management is that a policy in The Mutual Life is not only an absolute protection, but a profitable investment as well.

The Mutual Life has returned to policy-holders the enormous sum of $540,479,809.

Its policies are free from technicalities and broadly liberal. Every penny of profit belongs to the policy holders.

Experienced agents can find no better company for which to work. It has room for workers.

The Testing of Eyes

Is not a matter of GUESSWORK, nor is it a matter of trying on READY-MADE GLASSES. It is a science governed by principles which none but a person who has studied the ANATOMY of the EYE and the optical phenomena involved in the act of vision, can understand. Our specialist devotes his whole time to the proper fitting of the eyes.
